Mr. C. D. Shannon

Mr. Daniel Hahn

Our Flag,
A symbol of our democracy
And its traditions,
Has grown in strength
And meaning
Through the years.
The board of education,
Our own board,
Represents
Our four communities --
Gates Mills,
Highland Heights,
Mayfield,
And Mayfield Heights --
And carries out
The American tradition
At the local level.
As symbols of strength,
Courage, and consecration,
We salute you.

JUNIOR PLAY

The Little Dog Laughed

Ain't love grand.

RESUME

Laurie Huntington (Judith Heiss), a pretty sophomore majoring in psychology, comes home from college and in no time at all she is psychoanalyzing her younger brother (Charles Beck) ... psychoanalyzing a taxidermist-omithologist (Charles Faulhaber) ... insisting that her family seek their energy peaks by taking temperatures every hour ... and throwing the entire neighborhood into a turmoil with her "Zambrowski" Ink Blot Test.

Honeywell flops again.

What is this - something new?

Looking over the situation.

RESUME

Down to Earth came two angels, Agnes (Nancy Doster) and Wilfred (Sheldon Feinstein) and a kind of heavenly hitchhiker, Pilone (Gerald Utz), who is a half angel. They came to influence the romances, finances, and fates of Augusta Applegate (Judith Heiss), a rich old maid, and her neighbor, Herman Howell (Joseph Czika), a handsome widower.

MINSTREL SHOW

Jubilee Chorus

Georgia Strutters

RESUME

Georgia Jubilee was a completely rou-tined minstrel show. There were sev-en end men (Charles Beck, Madelene Iammarino, Joseph Micale, Joseph Germano, James Spetrino, Judy Heiss, Joseph Mula) and an interlocutor (Jo-seph Czika) who could keep a person laughing for the whole program. The review of dances and singing (south-ern style) provided a variety and al-lowed the talent of Mayfield to really shine.
